

About:

There are five Commissioners including a Chief Election Commissioner. The Chief Election Commissioner acts as the Chairperson of the Election Commission. The Commissioners are appointed by the President on the recommendation of the Constitutional Council and their terms is of six years from the date of appointment. However, if they get the age of 65 years they retire earlier.

Nepalese citizen possessing qualifications such as holding a Bachelor's Degree, not being a member of any political party immediately before the appointment, attained the age of forty five, possessing high moral character is eligible to be appointed as the Chief Election Commissioner or an Election Commissioner.